

The Richmond Climax.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 12, 1907.

C. D. Samuels is a candidate for Governor.

For a first-class buggy, survey or phaeton, call on John Duncanson.

Corn is selling in the Point Lick neighborhood at $2.00 per barrel.

Base ball game between C. U. and state college on Saturday, in this city.

Very low rate of $1.50 to Cincinnati and return Sunday May 19th, via L. & N.

Caldwell High School children will find something of special interest on our first.

J. M. Riffe bought of A. S. Coyle five fine, harness mare, Dolly W., yesterday for which he paid $150.

Poor House Keeper Roberts now has twenty inmates, being the smallest number he has had for some time.

Dr. Landman, the oculist and optician, of Cincinnati, will be at the Mills House on Wednesday next, 12th inst.

Mrs. Heskey Creech, age about 45, a highly respected lady of the Waco neighborhood, died on the 4th inst., of paralysis.

All members of the Patti A. Clay Infirmary Association are earnestly requested to attend a called meeting at 8 o'clock to-day.

A visit to John Duncanson's carriage factory will convince you that he has the best line of buggies, surreys, phaetons, etc., ever displayed in Richmond.

Prof. J. D. Clark and Mr. W. H. Douglas purchased yesterday, the drug store on the cor. Main and First Streets, owned by the Richmond Drug Company.

The CLIMAX is still receiving contributions for the Southern food sufferers. Send one cent or one dollar and it will be dispatched to the needy and homeless.

We want it distinctly understood that, although we had to pay for Judge Tipton's hat, we did not set him up to his No. 12 shoes which he moved into last Friday.

If you want to be astonished call as we did on S. L. McKill and examine his line of harnesses, phaetons, buggies and upon Squire John P. Long. The mistake was due to the fact that the callers did not get the initials correct. Squire John P. Long is the man who so valiantly stood by the Democrats last fall, and the call by Democrats of Union is an expression of their gratitude and confidence.

Dr. Frazee's Long Service.

Dr. L. J. Frazee will not thank the CLIMAX for making him out a very old man, but his appointment last Friday by the Fiscal Court to be Jail Physician for the coming four years will justify this suspicion.

There will probably be fine driving on the public roads of the county for the next six months. A new and handsome vehicle can be enjoyed beyond measure. Call on John Duncanson and he can supply you with anything from a road wagon to a closed carriage.

Among the few colored subscribers of the CLIMAX J. K. Hugueley, of Union City, may be noticed, having been one of our readers for five years. He came in on Monday and paid up for another year. He is a faithful Republican.

Undoubtedly the cheapest grocery store in Central Kentucky is B. Chennault & Co., on 2d St., Richmond, Ky. They handle only standard goods and sell them for less than so-called cheap houses charge for trashy stuff.

W. W. Reynolds, of Rodburn, Ky., is located at Richmond for a short while. Mr. Reynolds tells us that he shipped 20,000 tons to the C. & O. railroad the other day. Mr. Reynolds has shipped over $100,000 worth of goods.

Still ahead of them all. They can't touch our low prices on first-class groceries. Some may attempt it but invariably fail by the way side. Dull days are a thing of the past at our store. B. Chennault & Co.

Everything is changing—Spring is going—old things are passing away—new things rule the day, and we are in strict accordance with all this newness. We have new styles and very handsome ones, and new prices which will meet your warm approval. Covington & Mitchell.

Come, get our prices on all kinds of groceries, queensware, etc., and compare them with the prices of other stores on first-class goods and you will find us to be at least 15 to 25 per cent cheaper than any grocery house in Richmond. B. Chennault & Co.

How are you fixed for a straw hat? If not, come and see our display of the "Hopkins," a hat that has a finish and get up about it that they try to copy but can't equal it. Yet they cost you no more than what you have usually been paying for straw hats. Covington & Mitchell.

Wanted—Board in nice private family in Richmond for gentlemen and wife, who will furnish the room if necessary. State price per week. Address box 109, Nicholasville, Ky.

A Beauty.

Mrs. Wm. Irvine takes the palm for the most fashionable vehicle in the city. It is a nice one-horse open coupe with a driver on a tall seat in front. It came from Atlanta but the freight was $54.26.

Reception and Social.

The First Presbyterian church will give a reception and social at the home of Rev. Dr. Blanton on Thursday evening next from 8 to 11 o'clock. A cordial invitation to the church and congregation.

Stanford's Loss.

Edw. Joseph Severance went to Memphis Tuesday to make arrangements to leave his pastorate in that city, says the Stanford Journal. Mr. Severance's father lately died, which will probably cause his son to return to Stanford. Joseph Severance, Sr., the lamented father, was a brother of that grand man, John Severance, deceased, late County Clerk of Marion, who was loved by people of all classes, and conditions, irrespective of party. His widow and children still reside in Lebanon, except Loretta, known in Richmond, who is now Mrs. Dr. Cox, of Nelson county. Few counties ever had more popular citizens than John and Joe Severance. May the Johns and Joes of the respective families emulate the noble qualities of their fathers.

Look out for Them.

The CLIMAX has been promised several contributions, both poetry and prose, from Mrs. B. B. Royburn, who writes an exceptionally facile pen. Her poems are songs of the heart, and cannot fail to touch a responsive chord wherever read. These contributions will appear in the near future.

Emmitt Wheeler Stabbed.

In a row at Mrs. Charlie Turner's school entertainment at Poosy Ridge, Wednesday night, Emmitt Wheeler was stabbed by Roscoe Sanders in the right side, inflicting a dangerous wound. Sanders was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Dudley and released on $100 bond.

Don't Want Much.

Mr. W. P. Prewitt writes from Kirksville:

Wanted, to Exchange—Two years and seven months' paid-up subscription to the Weekly-Courier Journal for one year paid-up subscription to The Weekly Dispatch.

F. C. TEVIS, Kirksville.

Shocked by Lightning.

James Denny was shocked by lightning while passing under a tree during a storm at Cottonsburg. He was knocked over a fifteen-foot embankment, bruising his face terribly. His wife and child were knocked down by the shock while in the house thirty yards away.

A Well-Known Merchant.

Desirous of reaching the major portion of the buyers of Madison county, Mr. Streng, the well-known merchant, advises in the CLIMAX.

We have known him for a dozen years, and have no hesitancy in commending him again as one of the most progressive, and reliable citizens. He has bargains and he sells as he advertises.

Republicans Nominates.

The following candidates were chosen at the big Republican Convention here last Saturday: County Judge, Walter Bennett; Circuit Clerk, L. E. Griggs; Circuit Attorney, Harry E. Allen; County Attorney, Grant E. Lilly; Sheriff, Coleman C. Wallace; Jailor, J. C. Armstrong; Assessor, Ben F. Cotton; Superintendent of Schools, U. S. Coyle; Surveyor, James T. Boggs; Coroner, Theo. L. Goodlet.

Call Upon Squire John P. Long For County Judge.

The call upon Squire John Long last week was intended to have been upon Squire John P. Long. The mistake was due to the fact that the callers did not get the initials correct.

Squire John P. Long is the man who so valiantly stood by the Democrats last fall, and the call by Democrats of Union is an expression of their gratitude and confidence.

NOTICE TO CANDIDATES.

The candidates for the various county offices to be selected in the Primary to be held May 29, by order of the Democratic County Committee, will furnish to the Secretary, Wm. Jett, or leave with Gabriel H. Chennault, at the Second National Bank in Richmond, Ky., on or before May 19, 1897, a list of names out of which the officers to hold said Primary will be selected, and the Democratic County Committee is requested to meet in Richmond on that day, May 19, for the purpose of selecting said officers.

Kentucky Wesleyan Won.

Despite the fact that C. U. sent the best declaimer he had, Mr. L. P. Evans, to the Inter-Collegiate Debating Contest at Lexington on Friday, she was unable to pull down the handsome $25 medal. Mr. Bonta, of Harrodsburg, from Ky. Wesleyan College, was awarded the prize. Mr. Evans' speech was altogether excellent, and his defeat reflects no discredit upon his college nor upon himself.

A Firm of Square Men.

The above is figurative, for neither White nor Gibson are "square" made men. But their dealings are what we refer to. They have the largest dry goods store in Richmond, and a stock of goods that command the admiration of purchasers and the envy of competitors. Spring and summer goods are there in abundance and the ladies have found out where to get the styles that rage in New York, where Mr. White purchases his goods.

Uneasy Rests the Head, Etc.

It was announced some time ago that our local pension examiners were resting easy because, although Democrats, they were under the civil service rules, and would be retained during life and the continuance of good behavior. Not so, however, Commissioner of Pensions Evans has announced that not a single pension examiner, and there are over 400 in the service, comes under the civil service classification. He intends to discharge all the Democrats and fill their places with good Republicans.

An Old Citizen Dies.

On account of his perfect health of mind and body, it was believed and hoped that Mr. Austin Ballard would survive many years, or at least round out a century, having been born August 22, 1802. But on Wednesday last he received a hard fall which produced his death on Saturday and this, aged, respected, and widely known citizen was laid to rest yesterday in our cemetery. He had several children, among them the second wife of T. S. Brumston, deceased, of this city, Mrs. Omara White, of Texas, and Davis Ballard, of Illinois. A number of descendants of the third and fourth generation also survive, among them Jas. C. White, Mrs. H. E. Allen, A. B. Stone, John Brumston, Clinton and Mary Allen and John B. Stone. A considerable estate is left.

A Great Change at State Lick.

Col. Bob Gillin has adopted the following rules for his Cosmopolitan Hotel at State Lick:

Guests are requested not to speak to the dumb waiter.

Those wishing to do a little driving will find a hammer and nails in the bureau drawer.

If your room gets to warm open the window and see the fire escape.

If you are fond of athletics and like good jumping lift the mattress and see the bed spring.

If your lamp goes out take a feather from the pillow—that's light enough for any room.

Don't worry about paying your bill; the house is supported by the foundation.

It is rumored that Colonel Charles Rowland, of this city, is really responsible for these regulations.

Distinguished Lady Visitors.

Miss Elvira Sydney Miller, the inimitable editor of the "Tattler Column" of the Louisville Times, appeared before an audience of the elite of this city on Friday last, delighting her hearers with several of her most noted productions, interspersed with solos by Mrs. Rita-Reve-nant Wolfe, a soprano without a peer in the Falls City. Miss Miller has not only been in the city and people and has never failed to charm. Her writings and sayings are so bright and pungent that they compel admiration, whilst her personality is simply irresistible. She is the idol of the Ky. Press and numbers her admirers only by the limit of her acquaintance.

Of Mrs. Wolf, only words of praise are heard. As a pupil of Mrs. Breckell, a warm reception in advances was guaranteed her, but after hearing her superb voice the praise was enthusiastic which fell from every music lover's lips. This critique is from Miss Pattie, an interested listener, herself a pupil of Breckell.

"It is seldom our privilege to hear so finished a vocalist. She sang without effort and her tone production is unusually fine. Her first number, 'The Great South Sea,' Donetti, was rendered with much expression and suited her voice admirably. The little lullaby, 'Hush My Darling,' by Bevan, was sung in a most artistic manner. The Spinning Song, by Cowen, showed fine training and much careful study."

After the entertainment Dr. and Mrs. A. Wilkes Smith tendered to their distinguished guests a Press Lunch to which the newspaper fraternity was invited. Mrs. Jason Walker, Mrs. Ed Hume and Mrs. Mamie Stockton assisted in receiving the "journalists," among whom were Messrs. Pilcher and Logan, of the Nicholasville Democrat, and Col. Craddock, of Paris.

Mrs. Walker played the accompaniment for Mrs. Wolf's solo, and responded to several queries.

Mr. W. Miller's introduction of Miss Miller was a darling, but like the air ship, it couldn't be caught on the fly. This is what Elder George Gowen said at Lancaster recently when the "Tattler" appeared there. It is a gem and to Col. Will Owsley we are indebted for this, its first appearance in print.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:—The "Tattler" of the Louisville Times, like all other tattlers of all other times, says what she pleases, and if you don't believe that she pleases to say about all that any one else could be expected to say on almost every conceivable subject, then I call in as evidence any issue of her favorite paper. Like all tattlers, too, her sphere of operations is the world, and her victims the entire human race with all the nationalities and "appurtenances thereof." "No pent-up notice" can "crib, coffin and confine" her powers; the whole wide world is hers.

In knowledge she is supposed to be omniscient, and in observation ubiquitous. She is equally at home in the discussion of all themes, whether they be Moses' pentateuch or Milton's Penseroso; Roentgen's newly discovered X Rays, Dante's Inferno or Dick Watts' political fortunes; the crash of thrones, the ruin of dynasties, the wreck of empires, or the momentous issues that hinge on the election of Patrick O'Brien or Mike Mulvaney in "deestrick" 10 or ward one hundred and "forty-nine."

Her facile pen moves as freely while discussing the "new woman" as it does while discussing the new spring bonnet—both of which, you will allow, are "fearfully and wonderfully made!"

Whether on convicts or congressmen; aldermanic honors or philology; bloomers or brigands; Burns, Byron, Browning, Bill Arrp, Bill Nye or "Billy Patterson;" the Kentucky Colonel of the pink-nosed sort or the base ball variety—the "Tattler" is every where and on all occasions, as nice as she is knowing, as brainy as she is bright, as ready as she is rhythmic, as delicate as she is delightful, and as womanly and wise as she is witty.

Now permit me to say in conclusion, that if you have ever in your life, away in the "back precincts" of your mind, had the most far-fetched shade of a shadow of the semblance of an inclination of a doubt about woman's ability to tattle, just read the Louisville Times or lend your ears to Miss Elvira Sydney Miller, whom I have the honor and pleasure of introducing this evening.

"Going into a decline." How often do we hear this expression. What does it mean? It means that people are losing flesh, growing thin, wasting.

The way to correct this condition is to ignore the digestive system. Indigestion arises from an inability to eat and digest food. In fact food does more harm than good because it ferments and putrefies in the stomach, developing poisonous substances which when absorbed cause various disorders.

What is required is that stomach be made to perform its duty. The Shaker Digestive Cordial is a food already digested and a digester of food as well. It will make the stomach healthy. Get a book from the druggist and read about it.

Women are not the only ones who are sensitive about their ages. A man doesn't like to be told that he is getting old. Health keeps a record of his age, and he knows any difference if he has lived eight years. If he has been healthy years, he will be hale and hearty and won't look like a young man as old as he is. Good digestion and rich, red blood make people look youthful. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes rich, red blood. It makes health in the right way. It works according to the right theory, and in 30 years of practice, it has proved that the theory is absolutely correct. It begins at the beginning—begins by perfecting the stomach, liver and bowels into perfect order, but it begins its good work on the blood before it finishes with the digestive system. It searches out disease germs wherever they may be and forces them out of the body. All druggists keep the "Discovery." It

WHAT WE INHERIT

We are not to blame for. We cannot be held responsible for the dispositions and tendencies which we derive from our ancestors, nor are we responsible for the germ of disease which may manifest itself in our blood as a heritage from former generations. But we are responsible if we allow these germs to develop into serious diseases which will impair our usefulness and destroy our happiness. We are responsible if we transmit to our descendants the diseases germ which it is possible for us to eradicate by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla, the one true blood purifier. THE BEST REMEDY FOR RHEUMATISM.

From the Fairbanks (N. Y.) Register.

Mr. James Rowland of this village, states that for twenty-five years his wife has been a sufferer from rheumatism. A few nights ago she was in such pain that she was nearly crazy. She sent Mr. Rowland to the doctor, but he had read of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and instead of going for the physician he went to the store and secured a bottle of it. His wife did not approve of Mr. Rowland's purchase at first, but nevertheless applied the Balm thoroughly and in an hour's time she was able to go to sleep. She now applies it whenever she feels an ache or a pain and finds that it always gives relief. He says that no medicine which he had used ever did her as much good.
